Chapter 4

Investigation and representation

49. Adjudication fees.—An adjudicator must not proceed to investigate an application until the prescribed adjudication fees have been paid or secured to the ombud's satisfaction.

- (i) the nature of the questions of law raised by the dispute;
- (ii) the relative complexity and importance of the dispute; and concludes that it would be unreasonable to expect the party to deal with the adjudication without legal representation.

Chapter 5

Adjudicator's orders

53. Order dismissing application.—(1) The adjudicator may make an order dismissing the application if, after investigation—

- (a) the adjudicator considers that the application is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or without substance; or

(2) If the adjudicator makes an order in terms of subsection (1) (a), the adjudicator—

56. Enforcement of orders.—(1) If an adjudicator's order is for the payment of an amount of money or any other relief which is within the jurisdiction of a magistrate's court, the order must be enforced as if it were a judgment of such Court and a clerk of such a Court must, on lodgement of a copy of the order, register it as an order in such Court.

(2) If an adjudicator's order is for the payment of an amount of money or any other relief which is beyond the jurisdiction of the magistrate's court, the order may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the High Court, and a

57. Right of appeal.—(1) An applicant, the association or any affected person who is dissatisfied by an adjudicator’s order, may appeal to the High Court, but only on a question of law.

(2) An appeal against an order must be lodged within 30 days after the date of delivery of the order of the adjudicator.

(3) A person who appeals against an order, may also apply to the High Court to stay the operation of the order appealed against to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.
